Choice-Based Credit System
Kamal Nath Shri

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Delhi University has recently invited comments from teachers and students to take a final decision on changes to the Choice-Based Credit system (CBCS) grading system;
(b) if so, whether the Government had set up a committee to look into issues related to examination under CBCS;
(c) if so, the details of recommendations made by the committee and action taken by the Government thereon;
(d) whether there is great resentment amongst students on CBCS and protecting against it; and
(e) if so, the action taken by the Government in this regard?

Answer

MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT
(SMT. SMRITI ZUBIN IRANI)

(a) & (d) University of Delhi has reported that a Committee has been constituted following receipt of the representations from the students to address the issues regarding grading system under CBCS. The comments/suggestions from the students and the stakeholders have been invited through University website.
(b)(c) & (e): No Madam. University of Delhi is a statutory autonomous institution established by an Act of Parliament and governed by the DU Act and Statutes and the Ordinances framed there-under and is competent to take action in academic and administrative matters of the University.
